TERMS & CONDITIONS

You will become a NYCP partner after sending us this signed agreement. We reserve the right at any time, in our sole discretion, to revoke your position as an NYCP partner, particularly if you fail to fulfill the responsibilities set out in this agreement.

If your position is revoked by us, you must stop performing the role, stop using the name of The National Youth Coalition for Peace (NYCP), the NYCP logo, stop referring to yourself as a partner for NYCP, and remove existing references including all uses of the NYCP name and logo on websites or social media.

All NYCP partner organizations are representatives of NYCP and must behave at all times in an appropriate way that does not bring NYCP, its associated companies, Board of Trustees, or other staff or volunteers into disrepute. During and after the end of your role as a NYCP partners you must not make any comments that are disparaging about, or take other action that might harm NYCP or their respective officers, employees, and members, or other NYCP partners.

NYCP believes that all its partners have a responsibility to safeguard and promote the welfare of people of different religions, ethnicities, backgrounds, and cultural beliefs.

You must, at all times during your agreement with NYCP:

a) Disclose anything that could reasonably be expected to harm you or NYCP. This includes any:

- i) Safeguarding incident (namely, any incident that has led to a referral to a relevant authority or any practice that has resulted in contact with a relevant authority because of safeguarding concerns).
- ii) Legal proceedings have been started against you or your organization or you have instigated legal proceedings against any other party.
- iii) Serious incident report involving you or your organization which has been made to any regulatory authority.
- iv) Other matter that could damage NYCP's reputation or bring NYCP into disrepute.

b) Not carry out your volunteer work for NYCP whilst adversely affected by alcohol or drugs, or other substance abuse, or which in any way adversely affects or damages the reputation of the organization, other staff, or volunteers.

c) Not engage in any criminal activity or encourage or assist anyone to break the law in any way, including, but not limited to, being in the possession of illegal goods or substances.

d) Not accept bribes or significant gifts from governments, beneficiaries, donors, or others.

This partnership is a voluntary position and you will not receive any payment, and all costs and expenses within this role are your responsibility. If we do agree to reimburse costs and expenses that you incur in connection with a particular event or activity, then these must be approved in advance by us and the original receipts and invoices must be provided before we can make any reimbursement.

It is essential that as NYCP partner, your organization adheres to all applicable laws and does not do, write or say anything that could compromise safety or create a risk to people (including you) or property. This is your responsibility and yours alone.

NYCP does not have the resources to oversee all contributions and activities taking place nationally and as such NYCP cannot accept, and hereby disclaim, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, all liability in respect of claims of any kind whatsoever, whether in tort, contract, under statute or otherwise arising in any way connected with the contributions and activities by your organization and other third parties in connection with the program.

You should stop your activities immediately if they are putting you or your associates at any risk and you should contact NYCP personnel as soon as possible.

You must not share, copy or retain any information regarding staff and fellow NYCP partners and you must also respect the confidentiality of staff and fellow volunteers or anyone outside of the organization who you encounter during your partnership with NYCP.

By signing this agreement, you agree that NYCP may hold and use your information to administer and supervise your work with NYCP and that such information may be available to those who reasonably need to have access to it within NYCP.

Being a NYCP partner entitles you to use the 'NYCP' logo. We grant to you, during the term of your role, a non-exclusive (which means that others have the right to use it), royalty-free (which means you do not need to pay us to use the Logo), non-transferable license to use the Logo (without alteration of any kind). Being a NYCP partner does not entitle you to use any other logo of Beydaar Society and its past projects and all goodwill resulting from the use of NYCP name and logo shall accrue to us.

For social media, only our official hashtags must be used. These are:

#beydaarsociety
#raqseamn
#NYCP
#peacethrougharts
#peacethroughculture
#peacethroughmysticism

Where possible, content that we have not pre-approved including the use of the NYCP name and Logo on social media websites should be accompanied by the following:

“Opinions are of the organization and not the views of NYCP. None of the opinions, ideas, or content expressed here are necessarily supported or endorsed by NYCP.”

We reserve the right to request copies of any material (whether electronic or hard copy) in which you use the NYCP name and/or Logo. If such information is requested by us, you must provide this information to us promptly. You must follow any instructions we make concerning the use of the NYCP name and/or Logo.

The NYCP name and Logo must at all times be used solely to promote the aims and objectives of NYCP. You must not use your role as NYCP partners, the NYCP name, or the Logo to promote your own political views or for any commercial gain or in connection with, any activity that might be encouraging violence, hatred, or is discriminatory based on race, ethnic origin, religion, disability, gender, age or sexual orientation

You must get advanced approval from NYCP to cover an activity in any form including photographing or obtaining stories, written, audio, or visual material. This approval must be written and signed by an authority figure in NYCP. NYCP takes no responsibility for material collected that has not been pre-approved by the organization.

You might be asked to provide content or materials about your role as a NYCP partners or to support the NYCP and you agree by signing this Letter of Agreement to assign to NYCP all existing and future intellectual property rights (including, without limitation, patents, copyright, and related rights) and inventions arising from the work that you do as a partner for NYCP. You also irrevocably waive all moral rights under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (and all similar rights in other jurisdictions) which you have or will have in any existing or future works produced by you about your role as a partner for NYCP.

I, hereby, confirm and agree to the terms of this Letter of Agreement, and understand that any breaches of these terms may result in immediate termination of the partnership.
